SO ORDERED 10/25/22

SARAH L. CAVE
United States Magistrate Judge

RE: Monterey Bay Military Housing LLC, et al. v. Ambac Assurance Corporation, et al.,
No. 19-cv-09193 (PGG) (SLC) (S.D.N.Y.)

Dear Judge Cave:

Plaintiffs write concerning the ongoing disputes regarding Plaintiffs' privilege logs and the October 28, 2022 conference.

As the parties have explained in prior correspondence, since the last conference, Plaintiffs have endeavored to narrow the scope of the dispute concerning Plaintiffs' privilege log. In connection with that work and accompanying document review, we have identified a series of technical errors by our vendor and are working expeditiously to correct them. As a result, Plaintiffs will be making a supplemental production and will produce a revised privilege log to Defendants. To further judicial efficiency and give the parties sufficient time to review and meet and confer, Plaintiffs propose adjourning the conference scheduled for October 28, 2022, or alternatively reserving discussion on the privilege log issues until the next conference date.

Moreover, Plaintiffs seek adjournment of the deadlines set forth in the Court's October 24, 2022 Memorandum Endorsement, which set the deadline for Defendants' position letter to be filed by October 26, 2022 and set the deadline for Plaintiffs' response letter to be filed by October 27, 2022. See Dkt. 510. To the extent these disputes are not fully resolved, Plaintiffs believe that the parties will be prepared to raise any outstanding issues with the Court in 1-2 weeks.

Defendants Dan Ray and Ambac do not object to this request.¹

Respectfully Submitted,
